

2:27

KL

Kevin ›

Len had a letter on the 22nd

The Future of Liberty Ledge
sudburyweekly.com

Ah. Right. Was that version edited?

Nope

Ok

Hold on - just double checked version history.

Someone requested a small factual correction, which Len agreed to and I updated it.

iMessage

Can you summarize the change?

version history.

2:28

KL

Someone requested a small factual correction, Len agreed to and I updated it.

Kevin >

Can you summarize the change?

Yep - the sentence about the committee. The person who requested a change wanted it to be clear that the committee was not established. So the all caps words below were added.

MAY include a more expansive committee, which COULD include town residents and experts

The person who requested the change is not an elected or appointed official but is involved with Sewataro.

Got it, thanks. Angry Lenny pulling the puppet strings again. Crazy how disenfranchised Sudbury voters are now. Lenny gets his revenge, 500 Sudbury kids get shafted.

HA
HA

LOL - I think I may have blown

+ iMessage
told her my main critique is that the business needs bigger

2:28

KL

Kevin ›

HA
HA

LOL - I think I may have blown Kristen's mind recently when I told her my main critique is that the business needs bigger

If we can get a better deal than the current one, I'm all for it. But there are 240 Sudbury families using the camp, and something like 75 Sudbury residents employed there. If the Town took it over, the weeds would be above my head in 2 weeks and fewer residents would use it than now and we'd lose out on $300k in revenue and $300k in maintenance.

I told Kristen I want to join the subcommittee tour and do a photo essay so readers can see/hear everything the committee hears from her and Scott

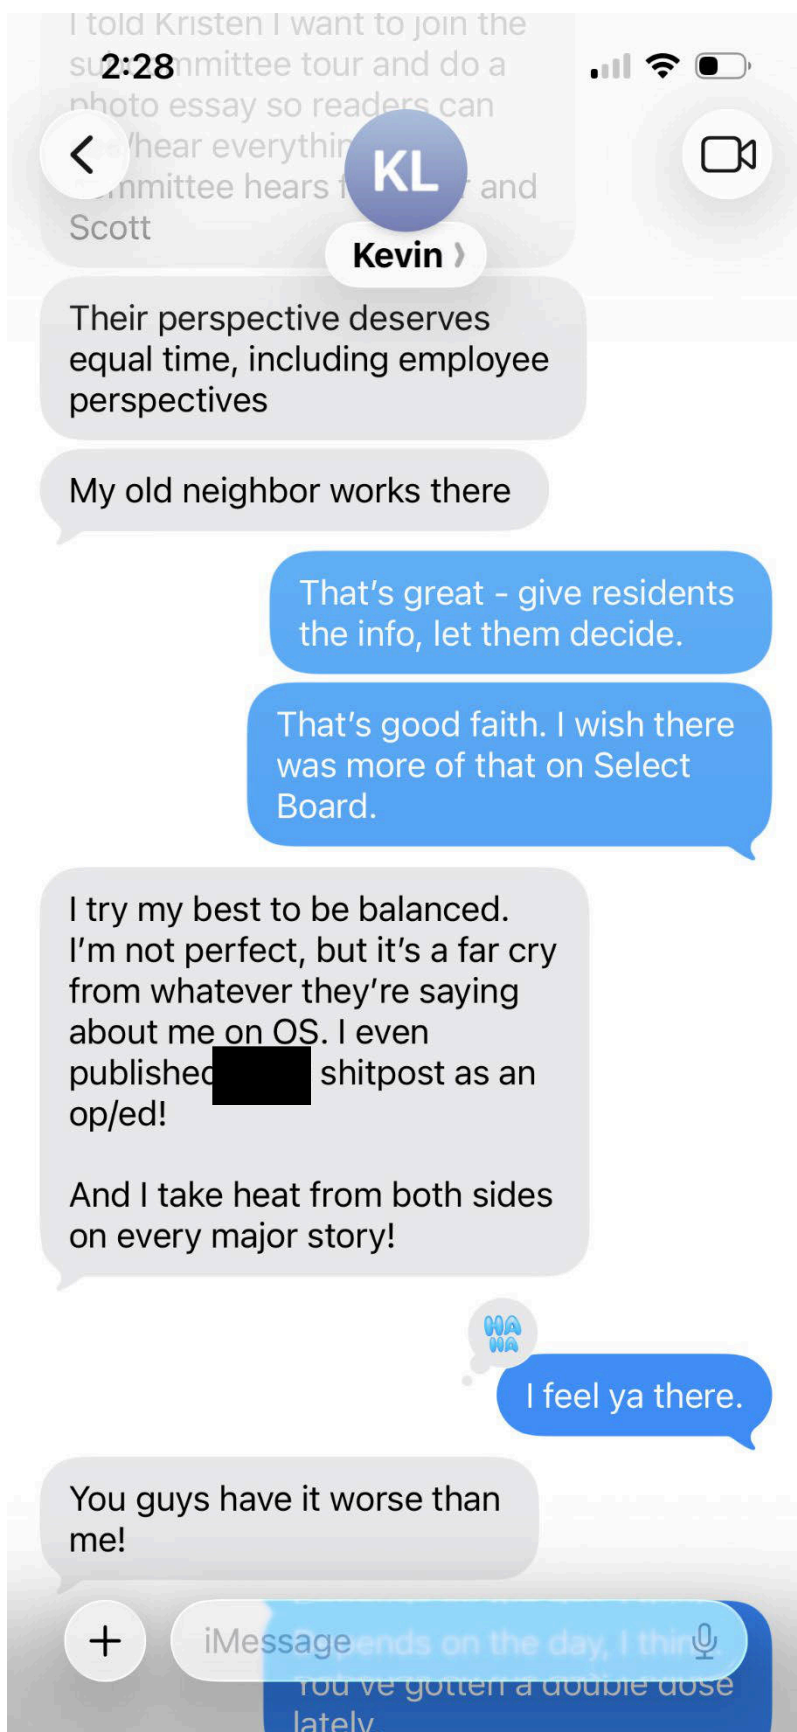

Their perspective deserves equal time, including employee perspectives

iMessage

My old neighbor works there

2:28

KL

you guys have it worse than me!

Kevin

Depends on the day, I think.
You've gotten a double dose lately.

HA
HA

Tue, Mar 24 at 3:10 PM

Are you still accepting LTEs for the election?

Deadline/cutoff was Sunday at 11:59pm unfortunately

Got it

Mon, May 11 at 9:15 PM

What they're saying about you is bullshit. And it's not news.

Thank you for that. I should

iMessage

knew if I said more something like this would happen. Sigh

Deadline/cutoff was Sunday at 11:59pm unfortunately

2:28

KL

Mon Kevin 5 PM

What they're saying about you is bullshit. And it's not news.

Thank you for that. I should have just done my quick "I vote no" and kept my mouth shut. I knew if I said more something like this would happen. Sigh.

My ultra secret data source is the MetroWest Adolescent Health Survey. And the SPS Connectivity Survey. It was imprecise to use the word "grades" as in test results; I should have said something like "attitudes toward school" or along those lines.

And I did laugh at the ridiculousness of good people trying to do good things for kids, however imperfectly, and getting treated like this. Gotta laugh.

I think your being elected three times by large majorities and being on the Sudbury side of social issues every step of the voters.

iMessage

